LUXUSEDGE

Our main objective is to provide you with a great eating experience while on your charter yacht or at your private villa, saving your time from shopping and long waiting at a beach club or restaurant for your meal.

Notice: Please inform your charter broker or us directly, about any allergies you or your family/ friends might have. Menu items might contain or come in contact with wheat, nuts, egg, milk, shellfish or other ingredients.

I discovered from an early age that my passion was cooking and the smiles I saw in people after eating my food nurtured me with joy. It came clear to me that I would wrap my life around the hospitality industry.

After my studies in New York I moved to Miami to work for wonderful chains of hotels and restaurants such as: Nobu in Miami Beach, The Delano Hotel, The Fairmont Hotel Group, The Ritz Carlton Hotel among others.

Opportunity brought me to travel around the world, learning different techniques of cooking.

As an Entrepreneur, I opened »Lounge Out« in Miami Beach, a Food and Beverage Consulting company. We collaborated successfully with Bacardi Group, Nikki Beach Club, among others. Now my team and I are based in Mallorca with our newest business concept LUXUSEDGE.

»I believe luxury is in our hands and in our ability to transform everyday experiences into positive emotions.«
